November 26, 2021 - In short: the KRT CLUB tool and manually resetting the trial version of Kaspersky Lab are both not worth the effort. Because there are many reasons behind it. First, none of these methods are fully effective. Secondly, none of them work without the use of additional software, and thirdly, both of them do not protect against attempts to "hack" the trial version. If you don't want the antivirus company to track your activities one day, then the best thing to do is uninstall the trial version. This article describes methods to do this. fffad4f19a
