A: Try to do the following: In your HKEY_CURRENT_USER\Software\Classes\Font\Charset folder, you should have two files named "Space" and "Tab". You can just delete one of them, but on the ground that giving great deference to the state's assessment of the security risks involved in sentencing someone to death violates the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution, as interpreted in Furman v. Georgiou, 973 F.2d 1563 (2d Cir. 1992), cert. denied, 113 S. Ct. 1284 (1993). See, e.g., 22 NYCRR 605.7(b) (defining the term "maximum security facility" for purposes of determining whether an inmate is eligible for a certain program or benefit as "a prison unit designated by the departmental staff and security clearances from the departmental commissioner or deputy commissioner of Corrections for maximum security inmates"). 2 Mulqueen's habeas petition (i.e., his second habeas petition) was filed in May 1993 and that the prison at which Mulqueen was housed at the time the petition was filed (see Mulqueen's petition, ante, at 17 n.8). Rikers Island, is a maximum security facility.7 Nevertheless, in the second (or on-line) edition of his brief in opposition to the motion to dismiss, which was filed on July 16, 1995, Mulqueen asserts that he is housed at the Southport Correctional Facility, which is a medium security facility.8 As noted, however, when the first (on-line) version of the brief in opposition was filed, Mulqueen was still behind bars in the prison where his second (on-line) petition was filed. See Mulqueen's brief in opposition, at 5 (noting that he was "currently housed" at the Southport Facility); Mulqueen v. Walker, Civ. No. 95 55cd1ed1c
